

It has been my privilege to witness Geraldo Morales as he develops into one of the top talented horsemen and trainers in the horse world today. It has been my pleasure to work with him and realize his great potential. His talent is working in a kind, positive method that creates a horse as a "willing partner".

Geraldo's dedication allows him to constantly improve and perform at peak levels and I am honored to mentor him in his goals and lifetime dreams of working with horses and riders. We need more professional horsemen like Geraldo Morales.
